Revere Academy Announces Scholarship for Beaders Contest Winner

The Revere Academy of Jewelry Arts awarded its first Scholarship for Beaders to Sigrid Wynne-Evans of Modesto, CA. Sigrid displays a high level of both technical skill and design expertise in creating jewelry with beads.

As the winner, Sigrid receives tuition and kit fees for the class of her choice, plus travel expenses and lodging in San Francisco. Sigrid will choose from over 40 classes offered at San Francisco's prestigious jewelry school. Upon learning she won the contest Sigrid exclaimed, "I am thrilled, so excited, and honored!!!! I can't wait to take a class at Revere!"

The new annual scholarship is open to anyone who makes beaded jewelry and would like to learn more about traditional jewelry making. The call for applications drew a hundred entries from across the US. "This is a great opportunity for anyone who is passionate about making jewelry and would like to take their skills to the next level," says the school's director and founder, Alan Revere. "In just 3 days, the winner will learn an incredible amount from professionals who are eager to share their skills."

The Revere Academy of Jewelry Arts is located in downtown San Francisco's historic Phelan Building. Schedules, information and a free video tour are available upon request from the Revere Academy of Jewelry Arts, 760 Market Street, Suite 900, San Francisco, Ca 94102.
