Revere Academy Announces New Scholarship Winner

San Francisco's Revere Academy of Jewelry Arts recently awarded its fourth annual New Student Scholarship to Charity Hall of Tucson, AZ. The winner receives a complete scholarship for the three-day class of her choice, including travel, lodging, tuition and expenses. The Academy offers over a hundred short, intensive classes each year, in a wide range of subjects, plus longer diploma programs.

Applicants were asked to submit images of work created with their own hands and answer two questions: Why they are qualified to win and why they want to attend the Revere Academy. The call for applications drew 78 entries from all over the country. "There were many high quality entries. It was difficult to select just one winner," said Alan Revere, the Academy's founder and director. "Luckily, we get to pick another winner next year."

The Revere Academy of Jewelry Arts is located in downtown San Francisco's historic Phelan Building. Schedules, information and a free video tour are available upon request from the Revere Academy of Jewelry Arts, 760 Market Street, Suite 900, San Francisco, CA 94102.
